

NEBOSH Diploma for Occupational Health and Safety Management Professionals

Duration: 29 Days (1 day per week)

Overview: The NEBOSH National Diploma is designed to provide the underpinning knowledge for a professional career in health and safety. The course is suitable for both newly appointed safety practitioners and those with substantial experience who wish to obtain Chartered Membership of IOSH. It equips holders to advise on effective management of risk across the range of employment sectors.

The NEBOSH National Diploma course is modular in structure and recognises success as the student progresses. Its practical approach promotes the application on knowledge acquired on the course to problem solving in the student's own workplace.

Content:

The Syllabus comprises three core units:

Unit ND1: Know – workplace health and safety principles (UK)

Unit ND2: Do – controlling workplace health issues (UK)

Unit ND3: Do – controlling workplace safety issues (UK)

Recognition:

The NEBOSH National Diploma is recognised by IOSH – The Institute of Occupational Safety and Health – as fulfilling the academic requirements for Chartered Membership (CMIOSH) conferring the official title of Chartered Safety and Health Practitioner. It is also accepted by the International Institute of Risk and Safety Management (IIRSM) as meeting their requirements for full membership. The NEBOSH National Diploma in Occupational Health and Safety is at level 6 in the National Qualification framework, and is accredited by QCA, CEA and ACCAC..

Assessment:

Unit ND1 is assessed through an assignment split into four parts (simulations, workplace based activities, reflective tasks and a research project). Units ND2 and ND3 are both assessed through Case Studies (simulation only). The assessments are all open book format, further details available in the sample assessments.

Prerequisite:

The Diploma assumes prior learning that is equivalent to NEBOSH General Certificate, therefore students embarking on this course must have a good underpinning knowledge in Health & Safety.

Award:

A Diploma award parchment is issued on completion of all 3 units.
